

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF NO IMPEDIMENT TO MARRIAGE

I,..... of .....
apply for a Certificate of No Impediment in respect of my proposed marriage in the People's Republic of China .....to.....

In support I provide the following particulars-

Male

Female

Table with 3 columns: Question number, Male, Female. Rows include: 1. Surname, 2. Christian or given names, 3. Country of Citizenship, 4. Australian Residency status, 5. Usual occupation, 6. Usual place of address, 7. Have you been married before?, 7(a). If yes to 7 please provide details of how that marriage was terminated., 8. Place of birth, 9. Date of birth, 9(a). If under 18 provide details of judicial authorisation, 10. Are you and the other party related?, 10(a). If yes to 10 please provide details of relationship.

I declare that the above information is correct and that I believe there is no legal impediment to the marriage by reason of-

- (a) either of us being lawfully married to some other person;
(b) our being within a prohibited relationship;
(c) either of us not being of marriageable age; or
(d) other circumstances.

Signature of person making the declaration.....

Declared at.....on the.....day of.....2003.

Witnessed by*(signature, name and title of person witnessing the declaration).....

*The persons before whom this declaration may be made are: a legal practitioner; a medical practitioner; an Australian Consular Officer; an Australian Diplomatic Officer; a person authorised under section 3(c) or 3(d) of the Consular Fees Act 1955; a bailiff; a civil marriage celebrant; a clerk of a court; a Justice of the Peace; a magistrate; a minister of religion; a Notary Public; a police officer; a Registrar or Deputy Registrar of a court; or a permanent employee (with 5 or more years of continuous service) of a local government authority or of Commonwealth, State or Territory government or authority.