

Transit visa (Subclass 771)

Application Checklist - CHINA

Citizens of the People's Republic of China are not able to transit Australia without a visa. Citizens of other countries should check Do I need a Transit visa for information if they are eligible to transit without a visa.

A Transit Visa is for travellers who intend to remain in Australia no longer than 72 hours and can demonstrate that the principal purpose of entering Australia is either to

- (i) pass through Australia in transit to another country, or
- (ii) pass through Australia to join a vessel as a crew member.

If a traveller intends a longer stay in Australia on the way to another country, they should apply for the appropriate visa, such as a Tourist Visa.

Please ensure that you lodge a complete application. While we may ask you to provide additional documents during the processing of your application, a decision on your visa application may be made solely on the information and documentation that you provide at the time of lodgement.

Important:

- Please provide an email address on the application form as this is the easiest way to communicate with you.
- Please do not send any original documents.
